BRAVES EXECUTIVES

TERRY McGUIRK

Chairman

Terry McGuirk is Chairman & CEO of Braves Holdings, LLC, the parent company of the Atlanta Braves and Braves Development

Company. In his role as Chairman and Control Person of the Atlanta Braves, McGuirk maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the Braves franchise including all team and player personnel operations, business operations, Truist Park and representation of the Braves at MLB ownership meetings. McGuirk is also the Chairman of Braves Development Company, the Braves real estate development entity that owns and operates The Battery Atlanta mixed use development adjacent to Truist Park.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales and distribution operations. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO.

He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System Inc., along with being chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. McGuirk is on the MLB Executive Council and is Chairman of the Board of Major League Baseball Advanced Media (MLBAM). He is the former chairman of the Major League Baseball Media Committee. He is a Trustee Emeritus of both Piedmont Healthcare and The Westminster Schools. McGuirk was the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and in 2010 he entered the Cable Television Hall of Fame.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

ATLANTA BRAVES OWNERSHIP

Liberty Media Corporation officially acquired the Atlanta Braves on May 16, 2007, when Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig announced that Major League Baseball ownership had approved Turner Broadcasting and Time Warner's sale of the team.

HANK AARON

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball following the 1976 season, Henry Aaron has given back to society.

His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established in 1995 to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports. The foundation has provided financial assistance to more than 755 Dream Chasers in six cities across the country, primarily through Boys and Girls Clubs. The generous support of Major League Baseball has enabled the foundation to transition into the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream "44 Forever" program (honoring Aaron's jersey number), helping 44 youngsters annually. The program will continue the foundation's mission in perpetuity and will provide financial assistance to young people with limited opportunities so they may develop their special talents and pursue their dreams, exclusively at Boys and Girls Clubs across the country and military bases world-wide.

The Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Four-for-Four Scholarship program, begun in 2010, has endowed four-year scholarships for the benefit of deserving students who have chosen to pursue their dreams by attending college. With particular emphasis on prior dream chasers who have now reached college age, these endowed scholarships of $100,000 each were initially established at Morehouse College, Texas College, Fisk University and, through the Dream Chaser Fund with the Greater Milwaukee Foundation, the University of Wisconsin-Madison, in honor of alumnus and then Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, then Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President for the Braves.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's record book. When he retired at the end of the 1976 season, he held more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Some of his records are truly amazing, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). In 2007, Barry Bonds broke Aaron's record for Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), second in multi-hit games (1,125), third in games played (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs scored (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), tied for 13th in singles (2,294) and tied for 16th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963.

Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut Aaron struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954.

Aaron became the second-youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second-youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax, in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit. He achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs each year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts per season, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the N.L. home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 13 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit seven as a second baseman. He hit 400 solo home runs and had three pinch-hit homers. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Medallion Financial Corporation.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gaile, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

DEREK SCHILLER

Atlanta Braves President and CEO

In his 17th season with the Atlanta Braves, president and chief executive officer Derek Schiller manages all business functions of the front office. Schiller oversees all business departments such as corporate partnerships, ticket sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising, and concessions; service-driven departments including client services, guest services, ticketing, special events, alumni relations, ballpark tours, baseball and corporate communications, community relations, and all other ballpark operations departments. As part of his role, Schiller sets the strategic vision for the Atlanta Braves business, guides the Braves brand, champions innovation across all areas of the business and manages the wide array of Braves talented employees.

As part of the Braves' executive leadership team, Schiller was instrumental in securing plans for Truist Park and The Battery Atlanta, and played a pivotal role throughout the design and execution phases of the project. Collaborating with Truist Park planners and architects, Schiller and the executive team tailored the ballpark to authentically represent the organization and its rich history, while creating unique gameday experiences for fans and visitors. Schiller's emphasis on innovation was the driving force behind many of these enhancements, along with technology partnerships that made Truist Park the most technologically advanced venue in all of sports.

Outside of the ballpark, Schiller and the executive team have guided the philosophy behind The Battery Atlanta to ensure a seamless integration with Truist Park, in both an aesthetic and strategic capacity. This new approach to adding a massive real estate development as part of a new ballpark has been recognized around the world. Schiller's focus on design strategy as well as pursuing and cultivating relationships with tenants who align with the Braves' and The Battery Atlanta's mission has led to a robust landscape of tenants, including Comcast, Omni Hotels and Resorts, Live Nation's Coca-Cola Roxy Theatre, and a multitude of restaurant and retail tenants.

In conjunction with Braves Chairman Terry McGuirk, Schiller has been a key factor in guiding the front office to further increase sales and visibility, improve customer service and become an industry leader in the business of professional sports.

Under Schiller's direction, the Braves have introduced many technical developments including digital ticketing, variable and dynamic pricing, and a Customer Relationship Management system that has enhanced customer service and data management for both corporate partners and ticket holders. During his tenure, the organization has also placed a focus on expanding fan outreach by creating engaging content on all social media platforms. All marketing outreach and brand campaigns also remain under Schiller's direction, including the successful "Welcome Home" campaign in 2017 for the team's inaugural season at Truist Park and the current "Chop On" campaign.

Additionally, Schiller oversees all broadcasting relationships, which include Braves television partner FOX Sports South and FOX Sports Southeast, as well as the team's radio partner, Dickey Broadcasting, and the Braves Radio Network of affiliates across the Southeast.

Schiller joined the Braves in November 2003 as senior vice president of sales and marketing and was promoted to executive vice president of sales and marketing in August 2007. He came to the Braves after serving as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he led the development of the Thrashers as an expansion franchise in the National Hockey League, which included the management of all business operations and marketing.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996 to 1997. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing. He was instrumental in putting together one of the largest sponsorship deals in sports between the Yankees and Adidas.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the executive director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University. He is a board member of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Atlanta Sports Council, and the Jack and Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation, and is serving on the Truist Atlanta Advisory Council. Schiller is an alumnus of Leadership Atlanta and supports a number of metro Atlanta charities. He also currently serves on various MLB committees. BOBBY COX

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bobby Cox closed out his legendary managerial career after the 2010 campaign and is now in his 10th season in a consulting role for the Braves.

Cox was awarded baseball's highest honor in 2014, when he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, along with fellow managers Tony La Russa and Joe Torre and former players Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux and Frank Thomas.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of his contract extension, Cox was given a consulting agreement. In his role, he advises and consults in all areas of baseball operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox works with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2,001-3 (.556). He won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington.

In his final season in 2010, the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card championship in franchise history. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90-or-more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for the most consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

He brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its "Mr. Baseball" award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and The Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College. He and his wife, Pam, reside in Marietta, Ga. They have three daughters: Keisha, Kami and Skyla. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

The 2020 season marks Chip Moore's 43rd with the Braves organization. Moore, executive vice president of minor league affiliates and strategic planning, assists the Braves' executive board with long-term planning and oversees the club's minor league affiliates, spring training facility and Florida operations. Moore spent nine years (2009-17) as the Braves' chief financial officer, after spending 12 seasons (1997-2008) as senior vice president and controller. He was named to his current position on February 5, 2018.

Moore was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure Truist Park and the club's mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta, both of which opened in 2017. He has long been a leader in the business side of the Braves Minor League ownership. Moore played an important role in lease negotiations, relocation, design and construction of minor league ballparks in Rome, Ga., Pearl, Miss., and Gwinnett, Ga. Additionally, Moore has represented the Rome club on the South Atlantic League Board of Directors since 1992 and has served on Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees the past eight years.

Over the past 25 years, Moore led the Braves finance and accounting function and played a key role in Braves successes both on and off the field. This included managing financial tasks associated with Braves postseason runs, MLB's 2000 All-Star Game in Atlanta and the many challenges associated with the moves from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium to Turner Field and finally to Truist Park.

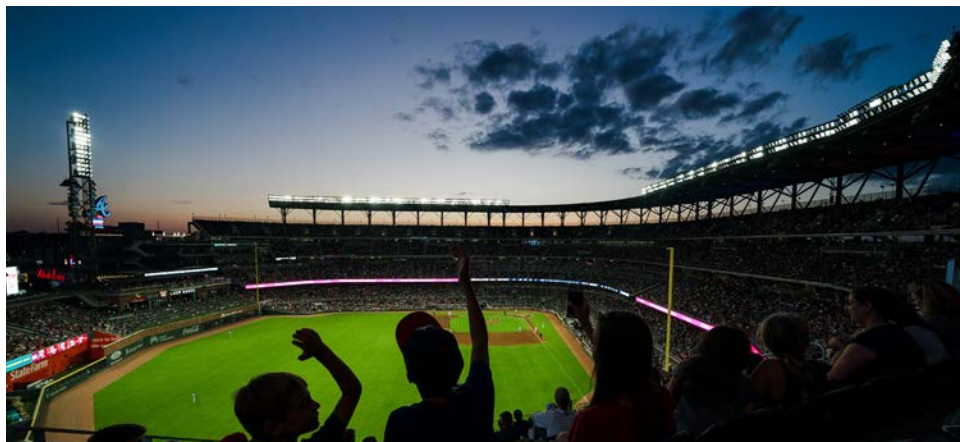

In addition, Moore was an instrumental figure in the lease negotiation, design and construction of the Braves' spring training complex in North Port, Fla., in Sarasota County.

Moore steadily moved up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985 he joined the Braves accounting department and rose to assistant controller in 1988 and controller in 1992 before becoming chief financial officer in 2009.

Moore also worked on the establishment of the Braves charitable entity, the Atlanta Braves Foundation, and has served on its Board as Treasurer since inception.

Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in business administration majoring in accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He serves on the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees and is also on the Board of Directors and serves as vice president of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. In 2006, Moore was inducted into the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Rome Braves and the SAL. He currently serves as a member of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Committee. Locally, he serves on the Board of Atlanta Area Council of Boy Scouts.

BILL BARTHOLOMAY

Chairman Emeritus

Named Chairman Emeritus of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, Bill Bartholomay was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 19 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another N.L. West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and division titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles each year from 2000 to 2005 and then again in 2013, 2018 and 2019.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for more than 50 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in many areas. He has been a member of Major League Baseball's Ownership Committee, Equal Opportunity Committee and the Legislative Committee. He was also a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players' Benefit Plan and is the past chairman of Major League Baseball's Finance Committee. He is a former member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area." In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is vice chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE) and is a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country. In March 2015, Bartholomay was recognized by the United States Senate in recognition of his pioneering leadership in baseball and his many civic and philanthropic contributions.

In the fall of 2009, the Braves began a collaboration with the Trey Duffy Scholarship Foundation. The program makes available four college scholarships, up to $10,000 each, for Atlanta Braves employees and their families. The Trey Duffy Scholarship was established in memory of Bartholomay's grandson Raymond F. Duffy III, known as "Trey." Recipients of the scholarships exemplify some of the qualities embodied by Trey: a true passion for the Atlanta Braves, a strong commitment to make an impact in the community, solid academics and a love for the game of baseball.

JOHN SCHUERHOLZ

Vice Chairman Emeritus

Named Vice Chairman Emeritus by the Braves in 2018, John Schuerholz is in his 55th year in professional baseball and his 30th season in Atlanta. He served as club president for eight and-a-half years before being named vice chairman in March 2016.

As president and then as vice chairman, Schuerholz was instrumental in the planning and building of Truist Park and the mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta, which opened in April 2017.

Schuerholz received the game's highest honor in December 2016, when he was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He was formally inducted into the illustrious club at Cooperstown, N.Y., on July 30, 2017.

Following 26 years as a Major League general manager, from 1982 to 2007, Schuerholz stepped aside as GM after the 2007 season and was named president of the Braves on October 11, 2007. He spent 17 seasons as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager, from 1991 to 2007.

Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990. Under his leadership and guidance as a GM, the Braves achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,594-1,092; .593) over those 17 seasons from 1991 to 2007. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves won five National League pennants, one World Series and several organization of the year awards. The club won 100-or-more games six times under Schuerholz, including five times in seven seasons from 1997 to 2003.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. In his 26 years as a general manager with Kansas City and Atlanta, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News selected him as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

Schuerholz was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2016 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in February 2015. In January 2014 he was honored with the Outstanding Achievement in Baseball Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. He was inducted into the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. After the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

Schuerholz served as chairman of Major League Baseball's Pace of Game Committee and was chairman of the Instant Replay Expansion Committee, which oversaw the implementation of expanded replay beginning in 2014. He also served on the Playing Rules Committee.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to director of player procurement and development in 1976 and vice president-player personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz executive vice president and general manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and served on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

TEHERAN VS. MIAMI: RH Julio Teheran made five starts on the season against Miami and allowed just one earned run in 32.0 innings (0.28 ERA).

A The 32.0 innings marked the most such innings in a season by a Braves pitcher against a single opponent allowing one earned run or less...Pat Jarvis held the previous record, holding Houston to one run over 31.1 innings in 1971.

A Teheran became the 11th pitcher in the live-ball era to allow one or fewer runs in at least that many innings against a single opponent in a season...The last to do so was Chicago-AL's Britt Burns, who did not allow a run in 32.0 innings against the Indians in 1985.

A Teheran pitched exactly 6.0 scoreless innings in each of his first three starts against the Marlins to open the season...His run was just the fourth time since 1908 that a Braves starter had three straight such starts against one opponent in a single season.

YOUNG START: The Braves pitched RH Julio Teheran on Opening Day, followed by rookies RH Bryse Wilson and RH Kyle Wright in games two and three.

A In 2019 marked the first time since 1905 that the Braves had two (or more) rookie starting pitchers in the first three games of the season.

A RH Dick Harley started game two in 1905, while LH Irv Young made the first of his 42 starts that season in game three.

A Wilson became the first Atlanta-era pitcher to start one of the first two games of a season prior to his 22nd birthday, and the first in franchise history since 21-year-old Wade Blasingame started game two in 1965.

A Wright, who appeared in four games out of the bullpen in 2018, became the first Braves pitcher to make his first career start in the first three games of a season since LHP Horacio Ramirez in 2003.

A Following those starts on Opening Weekend, Wilson and Wright made just 11 more appearances for the Braves on the season, including six starts.

GOING DEEP: Atlanta went 21-5 (.808) when its starting pitcher went at least 7.0 innings, and 60-23 (.723) when going at least 6.0.

A Atlanta starters pitched to a 2.17 ERA (128 ER/530.0 IP) when going at least 6.0 innings.

RUNS: The Braves scored 855 runs in 2019, the second most in modern-era franchise history (since 1900)...They were topped only by the 2003 club, who scored 907 runs...Only two other National League clubs scored more than the Braves in 2019: the Dodgers (886) and the Nationals (873).

- A* Ronald Acuña Jr. scored a National League-most 127 runs...Freddie Freeman (113) and Ozzie Albies (102) also scored triple-digit runs in 2019...This Braves club became the fifth in modern-era franchise history to have a trio of players each score 100 runs...The 2003 club was the last to do so, when a record five players scored triple-digit runs (Rafael Furcal, Marcus Giles, Andruw Jones, Chipper Jones and Gary Sheffield)...The Milwaukee trio of Hank Aaron, Bill Bruton and Eddie Mathews did this twice, first in 1955 and again in 1960...The 1999 club was the other to accomplish this (Bret Boone, Chipper Jones and Brian Jordan).
- A* Atlanta had 19 games in which it scored 10 or more runs, the club's most such games in a season since 2006, when they had 21 double-digit run games.
- A* The Braves scored a National League-most 491 runs prior to the All-Star break, the most a NL club scored before the break since 2008, when Chicago scored 507...The only Braves team to ever score more prior to the All-Star break was the 2003 club, which scored 506.

HOME RUN RECORD: The Braves hit a franchise single-season record 249 home runs, including a club record 131 at home...Atlanta hit 143 home runs before the All-Star break, also a franchise record.

- A* The Braves hit 118 home runs on the road...They hit a home run in a franchise modern-era record 30 consecutive road games, from June 9-August 11...Atlanta hit 54 total home runs over that stretch.
- A* Ronald Acuña Jr. hit a team-most 41 home runs, while Freddie Freeman had 38 and Josh Donaldson had 37...This Braves club became the 17th ever to have three players hit 35 home runs in a season...Two other Braves teams are on this list...The 1973 trio of Hank Aaron, Darrell Evans and Davey Johnson did it first, and it was matched in 2003 by Andruw Jones, Javy Lopez and Gary Sheffield...The Dodgers were the only other team to accomplish this in 2019 (Cody Bellinger, Max Muncy and Joc Pederson).
- A* Atlanta had a franchise record 16 sets of back-to-back home runs, the second most in the majors behind Los Angeles-NL (17).
- A* The Braves hit 56 home runs in 28 June games, the most homers the club has ever hit in a calendar month...The previous record was 55 in May of 2003...Atlanta homered in 26 of their 28 games in June.
- A* Atlanta hit 10 leadoff home runs, one off the franchise record set last season...Ronald Acuña Jr. hit seven of these home runs, second most in the National League (Joc Pederson had 9)...Ozzie Albies hit two and Ender Inciarte hit one.
- A* The Braves hit nine pinch-hit home runs, one away from the matching the franchise single-season record...The 2010 and 2017 clubs both hit 10...Johan Camargo hit a team-most four pinch-hit home runs in 2019...Evan Gattis (4 in 2013), Tommy Gregg (4 in 1990) and Butch Nieman (5 in 1945) are the only Braves to hit that many pinch-hit home runs in a season.

LATE INNINGS: Atlanta scored 308 runs after the sixth inning, the most such runs in the majors...They hit 94 home runs in these later innings.

- A* The Braves were the first team since the 2009 World Series champion Yankees to score 300 runs in the seventh inning or later of games...That New York club scored a record 336 runs in those situations.

1992 WORLD SERIES

TORONTO 4, ATLANTA 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays winning in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play, dating to Game 5 of the 1991 series. The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays limited the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. In Atlanta, the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

ATLANTA 4, CLEVELAND 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic homer to right field in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him a MLB-record 25 for the postseason (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS). Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie.

Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

NEW YORK 4, ATLANTA 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run.

The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

NEW YORK 4, ATLANTA 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead.

A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PHILADELPHIA 4, ATLANTA 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ATLANTA 4, CINCINNATI 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th.

Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

ATLANTA 4, ST. LOUIS 3

The Braves became the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, crushing the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Javy Lopez broke a Game 1 tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux helped the Cards to an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. In Game 4, Atlanta led 3-0 with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. Facing elimination in Game 5, the Braves scored five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

FLORIDA 4, ATLANTA 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

1998 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

SAN DIEGO 4, ATLANTA 2

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0.

All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

1999 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ATLANTA 4, NEW YORK 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Pérez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Pérez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ARIZONA 4, ATLANTA 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix before taking Game 2, 8-1. Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie to even the series. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

BRAVES IN THE DIVISION SERIES

1995 DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA 3, COLORADO 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA 3, LOS ANGELES 0

The Braves swept the Dodgers despite scoring 10 runs and hitting .180 as the staff allowed three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). In Game 1, the Braves continued their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer helped the team to a 2-1 win. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched the 10th for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off homer in the seventh tied the game at 2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit a solo shot for the game's final run. Greg Maddux allowed two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to win, and Wohlers recorded his second save. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones hit a two-run homer following a two-run double by Mark Lemke to knock out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA 3, HOUSTON 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a second-inning homer by Ryan Klesko. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, breaking a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves finished the sweep at Houston, as John Smoltz tossed a three-hitter to win, 4-1. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA 3, CHICAGO 0

For the third straight year, the Braves swept the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves posted 10 straight Division Series wins. Michael Tucker's two-run homer and Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam backed John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Game 2 featured a pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs taking a 1-0 lead to the bottom of the ninth. But Javy Lopez hit a one-out homer and in the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out, run-scoring single to send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and scored on a passed ball, had a 1-0 lead through seven. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Pérez grand slam. The Cubs scored twice off Maddux in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg tossed two scoreless innings to send the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 DIVISION SERIES

ATLANTA 3, HOUSTON 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Pérez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Gutierrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning.

Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

ST. LOUIS 3, ATLANTA 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series.

Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

ATLANTA 3, HOUSTON 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3.

Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 DIVISION SERIES

SAN FRANCISCO 3, ATLANTA 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

2003 DIVISION SERIES

CHICAGO 3, ATLANTA 2

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

HOUSTON 3, ATLANTA 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

HOUSTON 3, ATLANTA 1

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up

6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

2010 DIVISION SERIES

SAN FRANCISCO 3, ATLANTA 1

After a five-year playoff drought, the Braves entered the 2010 postseason as the National League's Wild Card Champion. They faced off against the eventual World Series Champion San Francisco Giants in the opening round. The Braves offense managed only two hits as they fell 1-0 to Game 1 starter Tim Lincecum in his first career postseason start. The game's only run came after Giants catcher Buster Posey singled to left and stole second on a controversial "safe" call, only to score on a Cody Ross single. The Braves took Game 2 in 11 innings at AT&T Park after overcoming a three-run deficit. Outfielder Rick Ankiel hit a go-ahead solo home run into McCovey Cove and Kyle Farnsworth tossed a scoreless bottom of the 11th to preserve the 5-4 victory. The win came at considerable cost, however, as closer Billy Wagner suffered a season-ending oblique injury in the 10th inning. The Braves fell 3-2 in Game 3 at Turner Field after holding a 2-1 lead through eight innings. Giants starter Jonathan Sanchez pitched a no-hitter through six innings as the Braves committed three errors in the game. Pitching on three days' rest, Braves starter Derek Lowe took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of Game 4, but Braves relievers could not hold the 2-1 lead. The Giants plated two in the seventh that proved to be the game winners, ending the series. The 3-2 loss in Game 4 was manager Bobby Cox's final game.

Giants players and coaches joined the Turner Field fans to give him a loud ovation as he left the field. The series was only the second postseason series in which each of the first four games were decided by one run. The only other postseason series in Major League history to begin with four straight one-run games was the 1972 World Series, when the Oakland A's defeated the Cincinnati Reds in seven games with all but one game (Game 6) being decided by one run.

LOS ANGELES 3, ATLANTA 1

After posting a 96-66 record and claiming its first National League East Division title since 2005, Atlanta matched up against the NL West Division Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers powered their way to a 3-1 series win as they outscored the Braves 26-14. After leading the National League with 181 home runs and ranking tied for fourth with just 127 homers allowed during the regular season, the Braves were outthomered 7-1 in the four-game set. Kris Medlen took to the mound for the Braves in Game 1 at Turner Field, his second consecutive postseason start, while Los Angeles countered with eventual Cy Young Award winner Clayton Kershaw, who held Atlanta to one run on three hits in 7.0 innings with 12 strikeouts. The Dodgers jumped out to an early 5-0 lead highlighted by Adrian Gonzalez's two-run home run in the third inning. Chris Johnson, who finished the regular season with the NL's second best batting average at .321, drove in the Braves' lone run of the game with a two-out RBI-single in the fourth inning, as Atlanta dropped Game 1 by a score of 6-1. The Braves evened the series at one game apiece with a 4-3 victory in Game 2, as Mike Minor allowed just one run in 6.1 innings en route to earning his first career postseason win. After an intentional walk to pinch-hitter Reed Johnson loaded the bases in the seventh inning, Jason Heyward followed with a two-RBI single to give Atlanta a 4-1 lead. Hanley Ramirez pulled the Dodgers within one run with a two-run homer in the eighth inning off David Carpenter before Craig Kimbrel shut the door with a four-out save, his first career save in postseason play. The series moved to Los Angeles as Game 3 featured a matchup of rookie hurlers with Julio Teheran facing off against Hyun-Jin Ryu. The Braves plated two runs in the first inning with RBI-singles from Evan Gattis and Chris Johnson to take an early 2-0 lead. The Dodgers answered with a pair of four-run frames in the second and fourth innings, as Los Angeles cruised to a 13-6 win. Jason Heyward added a two-run homer in the ninth inning, the first of his postseason career. Atlanta called on veteran Freddy Garcia to make his 11th career postseason start in Game 4, as the Dodgers sent Kershaw to the hill on three days' rest for the first time in his career. Carl Crawford gave Los Angeles an early 2-0 lead with a pair of solo home runs, including a leadoff homer to open the game. Chris Johnson evened the score at 2-2 in the fourth inning with a two-run single for his fourth and fifth RBIs of the series. After an Elliot Johnson triple with one out in the seventh inning, pinch-hitter Jose Constanza gave the Braves a 3-2 lead with an RBI-single to center field. Yasiel Puig led off the eighth inning with a double to right field bringing the go-ahead run to the plate, and after fouling off pitches on back-to-back bunt attempts, Juan Uribe launched a 2-2 pitch from David Carpenter deep to left field to give Los Angeles a 4-3 lead they would not relinquish.

Kenley Jansen struck out the side in the top of the ninth inning to preserve the win, as the Dodgers advanced to the National League Championship Series. Atlanta batted just .214 (28-for-131) in the series and pitched at a 5.82 ERA (22 ER/34.0 IP), while Los Angeles hit .333 (46-for-138) with a 3.09 ERA (12 ER/35.0 IP). Chris Johnson led the Braves with a .438 (7-for-16) average and five RBI.

2018 DIVISION SERIES

LOS ANGELES 3, ATLANTA 1

In their first postseason action in five seasons, the Braves lost, 3-1, in the National League Division Series to the Los Angeles Dodgers. The defeat was the Braves ninth consecutive playoff round loss, the second longest such streak in baseball history. Only Chicago (NL) owns a longer such skid, losing 10 consecutive rounds from 1910 through 1998. The Braves, who captured the National League East with a 90-72 record, entered the series as the No. 3 seed, and traveled to Dodger Stadium for the first two games. Atlanta faced LHP Hyun-jin Ryu in Game 1 ahead of staff ace Clayton Kershaw, and the left-hander threw seven shutout innings to lead the Dodgers to a 6-0 victory. The Game 1 defeat was the Braves eighth consecutive postseason series-opener loss. The Braves lost 3-0 in Game 2, to become just the second team in history to get shut out in the first two games of the postseason. The 1921 New York Giants lost consecutive 3-0 games to the New York Yankees to open the 1921 World Series before rebounding to win the best-of-nine matchup, 5-3. It also marked the first time in Braves postseason history they were shut out in consecutive games and just the 20th time in history a team has not scored in consecutive postseason games. In Game 3, 20-year-old OF Ronald Acuña Jr. became the youngest player in baseball history to hit a grand slam in a postseason game when he did so in the second inning. Prior to Acuña Jr.,

New York's Mickey Mantle was the youngest to hit a grand slam in the playoffs, doing so at the age of 21 in Game 5 of the 1953 World Series against Brooklyn. The Dodgers finished off the Braves in Game 4, winning 6-2. The Braves walked 27 in the series, the fourth most by any team in the divisional round...The three teams ahead of the Braves all played five-game series (1995 Mariners, 32; 2012 Nationals, 29; 1999 Red Sox, 28)

2019 DIVISION SERIES

ST. LOUIS 3, ATLANTA 2

In their second consecutive trip to the postseason, Atlanta entered the playoffs as the No. 2 seed in the National League but dropped the Division Series to the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2. The defeat was Atlanta's 10th consecutive loss in a playoff round dating to the 2001 NLCS, tying the Chicago Cubs for the longest such skid in major league history. Chicago also lost 10 straight rounds from 1910 through 1998. Atlanta allowed six runs over the final two innings in Game 1 to lose, 7-6, the Braves' ninth consecutive loss in a Game 1. Atlanta rebounded to toss a six-hit shutout in Game 2, winning, 3-0, behind 7.0 scoreless innings from Mike Foltyniewicz. The series shifted to St. Louis for Game 3, and the Braves scored three two-out, ninth-inning runs to earn a come-from-behind, 3-1 win and take the lead in the series, two-games-to-one. The Braves were four outs away from winning Game 4 and taking the series, before St. Louis rallied for a run in the eighth and a run in the 10th inning to even the series. The Cardinals would then score 10 times in the first inning of Game 5 to power a 13-1, series-clinching win. St. Louis' 10-run first was the most runs ever scored in the first inning of a playoff game.

BRAVES IN THE WILD CARD GAME

2012 WILD CARD GAME

ST. LOUIS 6, ATLANTA 3

In the first year of the one-game Wild Card playoff format, the Braves earned home field advantage with a 94-68 record. The Braves would play host to the St. Louis Cardinals (88-74) at Turner Field to determine which team would move on to the National League Division Series. Kris Medlen started for the Braves, who had won a Major League record 23 straight games in which Medlen had started. He was opposed by Kyle Lohse of the Cardinals. The Braves jumped out to an early lead on a two-run home run by David Ross in the bottom of the second inning. Medlen cruised through the first three innings, but ran into trouble in the top of the fourth. After allowing a lead-off single to Carlos Beltran, Matt Holliday grounded to third base in what looked to be a sure double play ball. The throw by Chipper Jones sailed over the head of second baseman Dan Uggla, and Beltran advanced to third. With runners on the corners, Allen Craig doubled home the first Cardinals run, followed by an RBI-groundout from Yadier Molina, and a sacrifice fly by David Freese to put the Cardinals ahead, 3-2.

Matt Holliday hit a solo home run in the top of the sixth and the Cardinals benefitted from two more Braves' errors in the top of the seventh to plate two runs and extend their lead to 6-2. Medlen worked into the seventh and allowed five runs (only two earned) on just three hits. The Braves were able to scratch a run across in the bottom of the seventh and had a chance to add more, but a controversial infield fly call in left field in the bottom of eighth shortened the inning and Atlanta ended up stranding the bases loaded. Dan Uggla came up as the potential tying run in the bottom of the ninth but grounded out to end the game, as the Braves fell, 6-3, in what would be the final game in the legendary career of Chipper Jones. Atlanta out-hit St. Louis, 12 hits to six and four of the Cardinals six runs were unearned.

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs).

In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

MANAGER

Full Name Robert Joe Cox

DOB 5/21/1941 Resides Tulsa, OK
Years With Braves 1978-1981, 1990-2010

Known as the consummate “players” manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League’s Wild Card. The 2010 campaign was Cox’s 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season’s final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach the milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time in consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league’s top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him MLB Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves beat Cleveland, four games to two, in the World Series. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to ‘81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club’s NL West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto’s manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. “It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn’t just fired him,” Turner said. “We need someone like him around here.” The Braves retired Cox’s uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, along with two of his former pitchers, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine.

TOM GLAVINE

PITCHER

Full Name Thomas Michael Glavine

Bats Left

Height 6-0

Weight 205

DOB 3/25/1966

Born Concord, MA

Years With Braves 1987-2002, 2008

Number Retired 2010

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine earned the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and he won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993. He won two Cy Young awards, first in 1991 and then in 1998. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation – led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six NL West Division titles and the League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics – in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets.

He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in wins (244) and strikeouts (2,091). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on – or just off – the corners of the strike zone. He also won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

INFIELDER

Full Name Larry Wayne Jones, Jr.

Bats Switch Throws Right

Height 6-4 Weight 210

DOB 4/24/1972 Born DeLand, FL

Years With Braves 1993, 1995-2012

Chipper Jones went from a first overall draft pick to a first-ballot Hall of Famer. In between, he spent his entire 18-year major league career in a Braves uniform, playing in more games than anyone in Atlanta history (2,499). He is the Atlanta career leader in virtually every offensive category, including hits (2,726), doubles (549), home runs (468), RBI (1,623), runs (1,619), total bases (4,755), extra-base hits (1,055), walks (franchise-record 1,512), on-base percentage (franchise-record .401) and at-bats (8,984). His .303 batting average and .529 slugging percentage rank second and his 38 triples tied for second. On the franchise career lists, Jones is second to Hank Aaron in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, total bases and extra-base hits; third in home runs and slugging percentage; and tied for fifth in batting average. Jones is the lone switch-hitter in Major League Baseball history with a lifetime .300 batting average and 300-plus home runs. Only Frankie Frisch posted a higher average (.316), only Eddie Murray collected more RBI (1,917) and only

Mickey Mantle (536) and Murray (504) slugged more homers. The Braves selected Jones in the 1990 amateur draft, and five years later he was runner-up for National League Rookie of the Year honors (to Los Angeles pitcher Hideo Nomo). Jones evolved into a premier third baseman and was an eight-time All-Star, including four starts. He was named the 1999 NL Most Valuable Player after batting .319 with 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI, 116 runs and 126 walks. Five other times he finished in the top 10 in MVP balloting. On July 5, 2007, Jones passed Dale Murphy for the most home runs in Atlanta annals. In 2008, Jones led the league with a .364 batting average (third-best in franchise history). He owns four of the top 10 season on-base percentages in franchise history, including an Atlanta-record .470 mark in 2008. In his first year of eligibility for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018, Jones received 97.2 percent of the vote. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2013 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015..

PITCHER

Full Name Gregory Alan Maddux

Bats Right

Throws Right

Height 6-0

Weight 170

DOB 4/14/1966

Born San Angelo, TX

Years With Braves 1993-2003

Number Retired 2009

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three consecutive Cy Young awards. With Atlanta, Maddux led the NL in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968. In 1995, Maddux went 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and before playing for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) – the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, earning 97.2 percent of the vote (the 10th-highest total ever) in his first year on the ballot.

 Height 6-5 Weight 215
 DOB 3/12/1956 Born Portland, OR
 Years With Braves 1976-90
 Number Retired 1994

The Braves drafted Dale Murphy No. 5 overall in 1974, but five years later he had yet to reach his potential as a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman. Then, manager Bobby Cox made Murphy a full-time outfielder and from 1980 to 1989, Murphy averaged 31 home runs and 93 RBI. He was the back-to-back NL Most Valuable Player in 1982 (.281, 36 home runs, 109 RBI and 23 stolen bases) and 1983 (.302, 36 home runs, 121 RBI, franchise-record 131 runs scored and 30 stolen bases). In 1983, Murphy became the sixth different player in baseball history with 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season. He led the NL with 332 total bases and tied for the lead with 36 home runs in 1984 and topped the circuit with 37 home runs and 118 runs scored the following year. From September 26, 1981, to July 8, 1986, Murphy played in 740 consecutive games. He appeared in seven All-Star Games – leading all vote-getters in 1985 – and won five Gold Glove Awards and four Silver Slugger Awards. Throughout his career, Murphy displayed a high moral character, receiving the Lou Gehrig Award in 1985 and the Roberto Clemente Award in 1988. On the Braves' career lists, he is fourth in games played (1,926), runs (1,103), hits (1,901), home runs (371), RBI (1,143) and total bases (3,394), and he is second in each category to Chipper Jones since the franchise moved to Atlanta. "Murph" was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2000.

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired 20-year-old John Smoltz from Detroit in 1987 for 36-year-old Doyle Alexander, he did so with an eye on the future. Smoltz delivered, excelling as both a starter and reliever over the next two decades. He is the only pitcher in MLB history with 200 wins and 150 saves. In 14 full seasons starting, he won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the NL or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times. Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 while fanning a franchise-record 276. Following "Tommy John" surgery that sidelined him for all of 2000, Smoltz closed for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third for the Cy Young Award. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000-strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011), second in saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with Boston and St. Louis in 2009. He won with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2005 and with the Branch Rickey Award in 2007. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012 and was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Famer in 2015, joining Glavine and Maddux in Cooperstown.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. The club broke ground on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. The approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. The architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. The general contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons until the club moved into the Georgia Dome in 1992 and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

TURNER FIELD (1997-2016)

Originally built to serve as the heart of the 1996 Summer Olympics, Turner Field became the home of the Braves in 1997. The team played there through the 2016 season, going 951-667 (.588) in the regular season at the park, while winning 10 NL East titles. The park sits between Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard to the north, Hank Aaron Drive to the east, Bill Lucas Drive to the south and Pollard Boulevard to the west. The $209-million stadium began construction in 1993 and opened three years later as Centennial Olympic Stadium. The 85,000-seat structure served as the centerpiece of the 1996 Summer Olympics, housing the opening and closing ceremonies, along with track and field events. After the completion of the Paralympic Games in August, the stadium was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility over the course of seven months from September until April of 1997. Much of the north end of the stadium was taken out to install the outfield walls, while Entry Plaza, the main entrance to Turner Field, was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track-and-field complex were removed. The Braves played their first game at Turner Field on April 4, 1997, beating the Chicago Cubs, 5-4. The club drew 3,464,488 fans in their first season, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Over their 20 seasons at the ballpark, the Braves welcomed 52,439,513 regular season fans to Turner Field, while surpassing two million fans in every year. The Braves beat the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, in Turner Field's final game on October 2, 2016. The club moved their offices out of the ballpark in December of that year, with Georgia State University taking control after purchasing the stadium for $22.8 million.

Freddie Freeman started nine consecutive Opening Days for the Braves from 2011 to 2019, setting the Atlanta franchise record for a first baseman.

ATLANTA'S OPENING DAY RECORDS

HOME RUNS

The Braves have hit 58 home runs on Opening Day since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966. Five players (Dale Murphy, Fred McGriff, Andruw Jones, Brian McCann, and Freddie Freeman) hold the Atlanta-era record with three career homers in openers, while Joe Torre, McGriff and Edgar Renteria are the only Atlanta Braves with a multi-homer game on Opening Day. In 2018, Nick Markakis hit the only game-ending home run on Opening Day in Atlanta franchise history, driving a 1-1, ninth-inning pitch out to right field to give the Braves an 8-5 win.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION

QUESTIONS: Please submit all questions regarding credentials, media parking and general media information to Matt Grilli, matt.grilli@braves.com.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS: In accordance with Major League Baseball policy, only requests submitted through <https://credentials.mlb.com> will be considered, and credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies that have applied via the credential website. Requests made in-person, via email, or by phone call will not be considered.

CREDENTIAL SCANNING: In accordance with Major League Baseball policy, credentials are required to be scanned upon entrance to ballpark, entering the clubhouses and accessing the field. All credentials are equipped with barcodes, and security personnel will scan credentials at each location.

MEDIA PARKING: Parking for the media is available in the Boy Scout Lot #15. The entrance to the media lot is located at the corner of Circle 75 Parkway and Windy Ridge Parkway.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: Credentials may be picked up and media may enter the park at the 3rd Base Gate of Truist Park, located near the corner of Circle 75 Parkway and Windy Ridge Parkway. Both the media entrance and credential pick-up opens four hours prior to first pitch. To obtain admittance to the ballpark, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

PRESS BOX: The Truist Park press box is located on the Upper Level. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the press box.

CLUBHOUSES: In accordance with Major League Baseball policy, both clubhouses open 3-1/2 hours prior to first pitch. Each clubhouse closes to the media when that team takes to the field for batting practice. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission.

FIELD: Enter the field via the field access tunnel located just beyond the visiting clubhouse. The field and dugout areas must be cleared one hour prior to first pitch. Pregame broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

PHOTO AREAS: A limited number of still photographer field level positions are available, subject to team discretion.

BROADCAST BOOTHS: Booths are located in the press box. There are seven total broadcast booths, and booth assignments are posted digitally outside of each. To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact Beth Marshall, beth.marshall@braves.com, in the communications department.

MEDIA DRESS CODE: In accordance with Major League Baseball policy, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that respects their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and members of the media are expected to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing and hats bearing a professional sports team's logo should not be worn in press area
- Clothing and hats bearing a college/university team's logo should not be worn in press area
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
 - Sheer or see-through clothing
 - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts
 - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
 - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

PRESS DINING: Media dining will be provided in the break room of the press box, located just inside the main entrance of the press box. Meals will be available for $10, and will be served until the conclusion of the third inning..

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

ROOKIE RULE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

DAY / NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

DISABLED LISTS

10-DAY INJURED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

7-DAY INJURED LIST: Introduced in the 2011 season, the 7-day disabled list was created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. A 7-day IL stint cannot be backdated by more than five days.

60-DAY INJURED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

REGULATION GAME

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety. Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969.

LEARN

The Braves aspire to empower, educate, mentor and encourage youth to stay engaged in the classroom and celebrate educators for their continued dedication to all students throughout Braves Country. Through the pillar of LEARN, we aim to teach the game of baseball through literacy and math/science initiatives, cultivate future leaders, and expose students to career opportunities in baseball.

ATLANTA BRAVES SCIENCE OF BASEBALL

Atlanta Braves and Xfinity are committed to engaging students in STEM through a fun and interactive educational curriculum. The Braves Science of Baseball program engages middle school students in how the sport of baseball uses math, science, and technology concepts. During the program, students learn how angles, velocity, and spin impact home runs, the geometry of a baseball field, and the statistical analysis of baseball records.

MOST VALUABLE TEACHERS

The Atlanta Braves celebrate educators throughout Braves Country who are making a difference in their classrooms and in their communities with Most Valuable Teacher grants for their individual classroom projects and needs.

PLAY

The Braves are committed to growing the game in all of Braves Country and sharing with the community one of the skills we know best – baseball. Our dedication, enthusiasm, and respect for the game are visible on and off the field. Through the pillar of PLAY, we aim to introduce the game, teach the game, play the game, support the growth of the game, and celebrate the game.

INTRODUCE THE GAME

The Braves want every young person to experience our game in a fun and easy way. Through programs like FUN AT BAT, PLAY BALL events, whiffle ball, and stickball, the Braves offer many opportunities for youth to engage with our game. Our goal through these initiatives is to entice youth to sign up for a league and begin to grow in the sport.

TEACH THE GAME

The focus is on teaching baseball techniques correctly while also empowering coaches to do the same. The Braves strive to raise the standard of the youth baseball/softball experience by offering clinics and workshops for parents, umpires, and field maintenance staff.

PLAY THE GAME

Creating opportunities through inner-city, league-based programs is a focus for the Braves. Junior Braves & Braves RBI create an environment where youth play our game in a safe, fun and affordable way. Additionally, experience-driven tournaments like the Braves Country Battles and Braves Country Championships offer youth teams from across the Southeast a chance to play at a competitive level.

SUPPORT THE GAME

As the cost of playing baseball and softball has increased, the Braves remain devoted to supporting the game for leagues, teams, and coaches who need support or guidance. Through donations and fund-raising packages, equipment drives, grant guidance, league event support and partnerships, the Braves serve as a resource for programs in the Southeast.

CELEBRATE THE GAME

The Braves celebrate everything within the sport of baseball: great coaches, positive athletes, amazing plays, all-star youth, and championship teams. Through partnerships with youth and high school associations, non-profit organizations and other baseball supporters, we will celebrate deserving individuals throughout Braves Country.

SERVE

Braves players, coaches, and front office staff demonstrate appreciation to the women and men of the military and celebrate community heroes by dedicating our time and resources. Through the pillar of SERVE, we desire to instill inspiration, encouragement, and support for all of Braves Country.

COMMUNITY HEROES WEEK

GROWING OUR COMMUNITIES

HANK AARON WEEK

To honor Mr. Aaron, the Braves dedicated July 29 - August 4, 2019 as Hank Aaron Week, presented by Delta Air Lines. Among honoring and celebrating Mr. Aaron through service, education, and philanthropic programs, the centerpiece of Hank Aaron Week activities is the inaugural Hank Aaron Invitational.
